

Group Members: _____

Section: _____

Date: _____

Score: _____

“The Outside Appearance”
Marketing Mix and Product Definition

Directions: Read the questions/items carefully and give what is asked. Write your answer in the space provided. (3 items x 10 points)

1. Create a product brand based on your assigned commodity.
Brand name: _____

2. Design a packaging for the product.

3. Enumerate at least five (5) characteristics of the product.

Rubric for Scoring:

POINTS	Brand Name (item # 1)	Design (item # 2)	Characteristics (item # 3)
10	Differentiates product from other products; avoids commodity image; fills a space in consumer's mind. Additional purposes are observed.	Designed creatively; provides easy brand identification; describes features and benefits. Additional features are observed.	Describes compliance in government rules; explains how it lengthens product's lifespan; explains how it relates to the environment. Additional characteristics are enumerated.
7-9	Differentiates product from other products; avoids commodity image; fills a space in consumer's mind.	Designed creatively; provides easy brand identification; describes features and benefits.	Describes compliance in government rules; explains how it lengthens product's lifespan; explains how it relates to the environment.
4-6	At least two (2) are observed: differentiates a product from other products, avoids commodity image, fills a space in the consumer's mind.	At least two (2) are observed: designed creatively; provides easy brand identification; describes features and benefits.	At least two (2) are observed: described compliance in government rules; explains how it lengthens product's lifespan; explains how it relates to the environment.
1-3	At least one (1) is observed: differentiates a product from other products, avoids commodity image, fills a space in the consumer's mind.	At least one (1) is observed: designed creatively; provides easy brand identification; describes features and benefits.	At least one (1) is observed: described compliance in government rules; explains how it lengthens product's lifespan; explains how it relates to the environment.